

Global Freedom Insurance

The most expensive policy is the one you don't have when your family needs it.

A free, plain-English gift — no pitch, just clarity. A few things every family should know to protect what matters most.

Genuine Goodwill

Q. Isn't insurance a bet I hope to lose?

A. It's a transfer of risk — small certainty for protection against disaster.

Q. How much life insurance do I need?

A. Enough to replace income and clear debts for the years family depends on you.

Q. Could I do this as a career?

A. Many do — relationship work that protects people and rewards effort.

CYNDEE'S CURE

Avoiding the insurance conversation because it's morbid? Reframe it: this isn't about dying, it's about loving. One afternoon of planning is one of the kindest gifts you'll ever give the people you love.

BRETT'S BEST

Protect against what could wipe you out, not what would merely annoy you. Skip the tiny add-ons and put real coverage where a single event could change your family's life.

Ask Yourself

- If your income stopped tomorrow, how long could your household last?
- Who depends on you financially — and are they covered?
- What would 'peace of mind' actually look like for your family?

Give or receive — either direction, always from the heart. We're glad you're here.